Dear friends,

It's a joy to write to you and share some exciting news: Pauline Books & Media is now the home of Paulinas titles published by the Daughters of St. Paul of Latin America. We are delighted to offer books for Spanish speakers (see pages 40-55) while continuing to publish the titles in English that you know and love. We are honored to collaborate in this way with our sisters and Paulinas staff in Latin America and to support children, families, and those growing in their faith through quality resources in English and Spanish.

Among our new releases, we can't wait for you to read the first installment of the In Aeternum trilogy by Sr. Allison Regina Gliot, FSP (page 5). This YA urban fantasy series with a Catholic core draws teen readers deep into the spiritual and moral conflicts of its characters. Thought-provoking and compelling, The Curse He Chose (volume one of the In Aeternum trilogy) showcases the best in storytelling that integrates faith and fiction. We are proud to publish quality fiction like The Curse He Chose and our newest middle grade adventure, A Dark and Desperate Race by Stephanie Weller Hanson (page 4), to help children and teens imagine what it means to follow Jesus in even the most extraordinary (and unlikely) circumstances!

You will also find new titles in spirituality, prayer, and catechesis for children and families. From colorful board books that introduce toddlers to the dignity of the human person and the goodness of their bodies (page 3), to our bestselling devotional Media Fasting for those seeking greater balance in a media-saturated world (page 14), Pauline Books & Media is committed to provide resources that meet people where they are and inspire them to step forward in their journey with the Lord. Thank you for your partnership in mission. You are in our prayers!

In Christ,
Sr. Christina Miriam Wiegendt, FSP

Saint Carlo Acutis: God's Computer Genius (Canonization Edition)

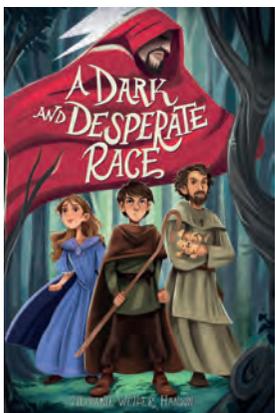

Ellen Labrecque; illustrated by Dan Wegandt

"My son has a deep fascination with all things technology and internet related.... He has not always been excited to go to Mass or learn about our faith. This book was a great way to bridge his love of technology with our Catholic faith."

—Zach W.

The updated, canonization edition of a Pauline Books & Media award winner! Meet Carlo, an Italian fifteen-year-old techie who loved coding, video games, animals, and especially Jesus! This fascinating, visually engaging biography unfolds the life and spirituality of the first millennial saint for children ages 8 to 11. Includes informative sidebars that explain historical, cultural, and religious terms, plus information on the canonization process.

A Dark and Desperate Race

Stephanie Weller Hanson

A page-turning, middle-grade adventure novel about coming of age, learning to trust, and racing toward what really matters.

Fourteen-year-old Will Pennington has a way with animals, and he loves taking the flocks to the high meadows. Especially to get away from his father, whose temper has only grown worse since Will's older brothers left home. After a huge argument, Will finally decides to run away. But before he can put his plan into action, Will stumbles across a secret plot from an enemy kingdom. Now the people he loves are in danger. As he races against time and the king's would-be assassin, he finds unlikely help from his loyal horse, a mysterious holy man, and a bossy girl from the royal court. But will it be enough for Will to save his home?

3467X, Paperback, 224 pages, $19.95 USD | Ages 9-12

The Curse He Chose

Book One of the In Aeternum Trilogy

Sr. Allison Regina Gliot, FSP

"I absolutely loved this book. It was one of my favorite things I've ever read... A lot of books I've read with Catholic themes have kind of tried to disguise them, but I really appreciated that this wasn't disguised. It really helped me to think about the different elements of my Catholic faith."

—Amelia S.,
high school student

"God knew that I needed to read this book because truly, when I was reading it, it just was touching my heart in so many ways."

—Carly P., college junior

"Thank you. This book helped me remember that my past is not something that should hinder me from going back to God."

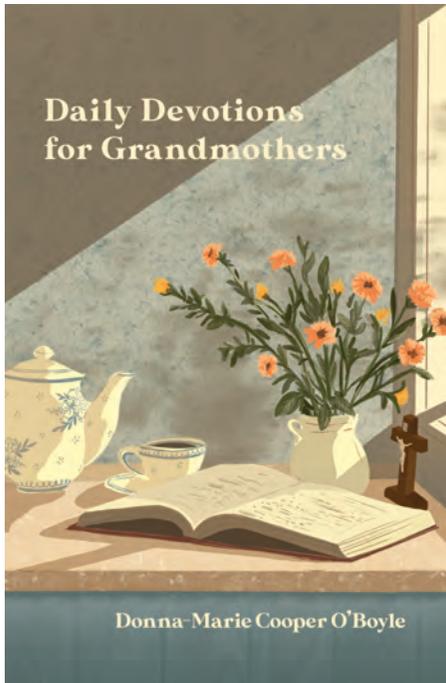

—Jericho S.,
high school student

Is any soul beyond saving? When Elizabeth's friends go off to college and leave her behind, she thinks things can't get worse. Then she stumbles into a fight between vampires and realizes ... they definitely can.

Forced on the run with Christopher, a vampire outcast who might be in even more trouble than she is, Elizabeth is left to rely on nothing but her faith in God and Christopher's impulsive choice to protect her. But the more time they spend together, the more Elizabeth realizes that Christopher is close to breaking in more ways than one. As their bond deepens and their enemies close in, Elizabeth must find a way to save him and herself—before it's too late.

This riveting, genre-bending first installment of the In Aeternum trilogy unites the suspense of urban fantasy with the Christian drama of sin, grace, and redemption.

Daily Devotions for Grandmothers

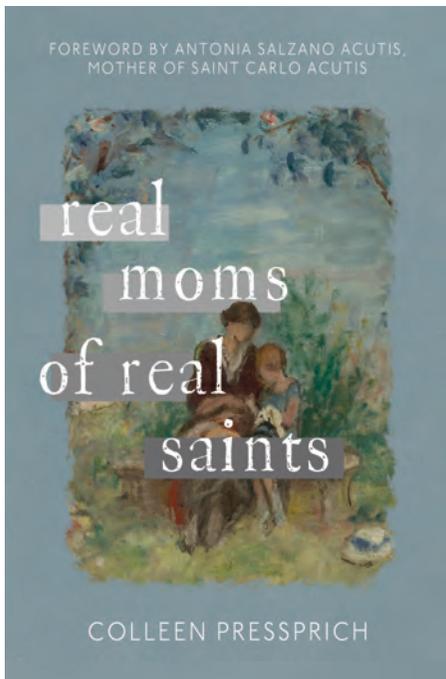

Donna-Marie Cooper O'Boyle

"I wrote Daily Devotions for Grandmothers to provide a daily devotional for Catholic grandmothers of all kinds and in all situations.... I am praying that the reflections will uplift weary hearts while offering a great big dose of hope to grandmothers who might not fully realize how important their unique vocation is in the eyes of God."

—from the Introduction

Award-winning author Donna-Marie Cooper O'Boyle shares daily meditations for Catholic grandmothers to help you deepen your faith and support your family as only a grandmother can. Brew a cup of your favorite tea and spend a few minutes each day savoring God's loving will for you through stories, quotes, prayers, and takeaways to put your reflections into action.

Real Moms of Real Saints

Colleen Pressprich

"This book will be helpful for parents who sincerely try to place God at the center of their family."

—from the Foreword by Antonia Salzano Acutis, mother of Saint Carlo Acutis

How do you help your children love God and grow in holiness? Draw close to the moms of the saints and learn from their virtues, struggles, failures, and joys in this deeply personal exploration of the vocation of motherhood. Through the stories of women like Giuseppa, the mother of Padre Pio, and Martha, the mother of Venerable Augustus Tolton, author Colleen Pressprich offers profound spiritual, psychological, and practical insights into motherhood, including those that have inspired her own adventure of raising twice-exceptional (2E) children with special needs. Uniquely real, raw, and relatable, Real Moms of Real Saints will bring you face-to-face—and heart-to-heart—with new friends and intercessors for your own adventure of raising future saints.

60522, Paperback, 208 pages, $19.95 USD

Stories of Saints and the Sacraments

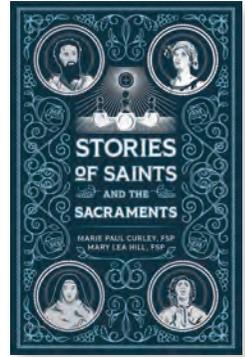

Sr. Marie Paul Curley, FSP, and Sr. Mary Lea Hill, FSP

“I pray that the stories of these great men and women and how they were transformed and sustained by the sacraments will rouse us to become saints ourselves in our day and age.”

—from the Foreword by Fr. John Riccardo

Witness the power of the seven sacraments through dramatic retellings of fourteen pivotal moments of grace in the lives of the saints. These well-researched, novelized stories will inspire you to welcome God's grace into your life and live your faith more boldly. Featuring saints from around the world and supplemental materials for group study, Stories of Saints and the Sacraments is a celebration of the universal call to holiness, making it ideal for personal spiritual reading, book clubs, and faith formation programs. Each story includes a personal challenge for the reader, a prayer, key facts and historical context, and quotes from the saints, plus a reader's guide and suggested Scripture and catechetical readings for further study. Available October 2025
