Dear Friends,

Last fall I had the joy of meeting Pope Leo XIV with other Daughters of St. Paul participating in our twelfth general chapter in Rome. After receiving encouragement from him in our mission of communicating the Gospel, we were each able to personally greet the Holy Father. I was over the moon to have the opportunity to present him with a copy of one of our children's books, Saint Carlo Acutis: God's Computer Genius. It was such a joy to represent, for just a moment, the sisters, staff, authors, artists, printers, and other collaborators we are so blessed to work with as I shared one of our projects with Pope Leo XIV.

As you peruse our spring 2026 catalog, I'm proud to share with you so many of our beautiful children's books! I hope you'll be able to take a moment to ooh and aah over the gorgeous artwork and creative stories being told in the pages of these books. Please join us in praying for all the children, families, students, and teachers who will enjoy them. And don't hesitate to let us know how we can help you find the right resources to bring Christ to those you minister to.

In Christ,
Sr. Christina Miriam Wegendt, FSP

THE FIRST DOCUMENT OF POPE LEO'S PAPACY

Dilexi Te: On Love for the Poor Pope Leo XIV

In this first document of his papacy, Pope Leo issues a call to all Christians to walk in the footsteps of Christ, who took on the poverty of our human condition; and to walk in the footsteps of countless men and women throughout the history of the Church who have expressed their love for God in and through their loving service to their neighbor by caring for the sick, freeing those bound, educating, clothing, and accompanying the least among us.

Dilexi Te is an eloquent reminder that our love for God and our deepest convictions need to be expressed in concrete action. "Christian love breaks down every barrier, brings close those who were distant, unites strangers, and reconciles enemies. It spans chasms that are humanly impossible to bridge, and it penetrates to the most hidden crevices of society" (Dilexi Te, 120).

The Light They Left

Book Two of the In Aeternum trilogy

Sr. Allison Regina Gliot, FSP

Feed on the dark, and it will feed on you.

It's been months since Christopher and Elizabeth narrowly survived an attack from his vampire enemies, but things are far from perfect. Memories from before he became a vampire are resurfacing, pulling him into the past he once disowned. His feelings for Elizabeth are growing, getting harder to hide by the day. And when the unpredictable vampire known as the Shadow reappears, Christopher knows the Enchantress isn't far behind.

Desperate to find a safe refuge and understand the changes that are happening to him, Christopher travels with Elizabeth and Father Stephen to an ancient German monastery that is intimately tied to his past. But the dark forest outside holds secrets of its own: secrets that Christopher sacrificed everything to forget.

In this gripping sequel to The Curse He Chose, Sister Allison Regina breaks new ground in the genre-bending In Aeternum trilogy, bridging the suspense of urban fantasy with the Christian drama of sin, grace, and redemption.

31689, Paperback, 384 pages, $16.95 USD | Ages 14+

The Curse He Chose

Book One of the In Aeternum trilogy

Sr. Allison Regina Gliot, FSP

Is any soul beyond saving? When Elizabeth's friends go off to college and leave her behind, she thinks things can't get worse. Then she stumbles into a fight between vampires and realizes ... they definitely can.

Forced on the run with Christopher, a vampire outcast who might be in even more trouble than she is, Elizabeth is left to rely on nothing but her faith in God and Christopher's impulsive choice to protect her. But the more time they spend together, the more Elizabeth realizes that Christopher is close to breaking in more ways than one. As their bond deepens and their enemies close in, Elizabeth must find a way to save him and herself—before it's too late.

This riveting, genre-bending first installment of the In Aeternum trilogy unites the suspense of urban fantasy with the Christian drama of sin, grace, and redemption.
